

TEXAS HOLD'EM POKERPRO DEVICE

General Rules

1. The maximum authorized number of players at an electronic Texas Hold'em Pokerpro device (hereafter referred to as the 'Device') is ten (10).
2. The player must be seated at one of the Device's positions to participate in a gaming session.
3. The minimum and maximum amounts that the player is authorized to bet are indicated at each Device.
4. To ensure fairness among players on waiting lists, the player whose name appears at the top of the waiting list is given a maximum of ten (10) minutes to take his/her seat, otherwise, the player's name returns to the bottom of the list.
5. For his/her security, the player is solely responsible for actions taken in order to participate in a gaming session and therefore cannot ask a third party for help.
6. In order to retain his/her playing spot, players are requested to notify a member of the Casino personnel before leaving a Device, otherwise, the Casino personnel reserves the right to assign the spot to another player.
7. For the benefit of all players seated at a Device, meal breaks are limited to one player at a time.
8. The player may not ask another player to replace him during a gaming session at a Device.
9. The player who sits at a Device's temporary "must move" gaming position acknowledges that he could be relocated to another Device at any time, without prior notice, at the request of the Casino personnel.
10. The player is not authorized to activate the keys on another player's screen.
11. The player is responsible for hiding the cards he is dealt in such a way that the other players cannot see them.
12. The player who reveals his cards to another player must reveal them to the other players participating in the gaming session if they so request.
13. The player who folds must neither show nor reveal his cards to the players who are still in the gaming session.
14. The player is not authorized to discuss the cards of another player participating in the gaming session, ask for help or make moves to the advantage of another player in any way.
15. In order to avoid collusion between two or more players, only the use of English and French is permitted.
16. To guarantee fair play, any and all forms of collusion among players is strictly prohibited.
17. The player must be polite and courteous towards all other players as well as the Casino personnel.
18. Any player whose presence disrupts gaming activities could be denied access to the Devices or the Casino for a specified period of time.
19. The Casino reserves the right to modify the minimum and maximum amounts the player can bet indicated at each Device at any time.
20. By engaging in a gaming session on a Device, the player accepts to comply with the present rules as well as with any decision made by the Casino personnel.
